About European Robotics Week

European Robotics Week (ERW) was conceived with the desire of the European Robotics community to bring robotics research and development closer to the public. More than 500,000 people across Europe have been part of ERW in its seven years of existence. Since 2014, euRobotics has been organising yearly the ERW Central Event, an eco-system of various activities in a chosen location.

euRobotics is a non-profit organisation based in Brussels with the objective to make robotics beneficial for Europe's economy and society. With more than 250 member organisations, euRobotics also provides the European Robotics Community with a legal entity to engage in a public/private partnership with the European Commission, named SPARC.

Visit the #ERW2018 Central Event in Augsburg

From 16 to 18 November, Augsburg will be in the spotlight, hosting the Central Opening event of the European Robotics Week 2018 (#ERW2018). Augsburg combines tradition and innovation and is home to numerous technology companies and world class research at the heart of the economic region of Bavaria.

On 16 November, you are welcome to celebrate the Central Opening event of #ERW2018 with high-level speakers, in the impressive ambiance of the Augsburg Town Hall. The event is in English and is open to everyone.

Highlights of the #ERW2018 Central event

From antiquity, to robots - that's what the attendees of the exhibition "From the Romans to Robotics" can experience from 16 to 18 November, in the Zeughaus.

Sponsors exhibiting: ABB, KUKA, Roboception, Schunk, PAL Robotics, Yaskawa

Vito Di Bari, world's premiere futurist, will share an inspiring key note presentation about the future of robotics, on 17 November, at the Zeughaus.
